ROLE DESCRIPTION

Deputy County Commissioner - Adult Support

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE ROLE?

To support the County Commissioner by leading the delivery of Adult Support across the County.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO?

Deputise for the CC where appropriate

Work with the County & District Commissioners to review & agree the ongoing strategy for the delivery of Adult Support within the County.

Lead on the recruitment of suitable ACCs to lead the County Communication, Development and Adult Support Teams and ensure they receive appropriate induction, training, ongoing support and supervision.

Work with the County & District Teams and your ACCs to develop and maintain Adult Support (Non-Wood Badge training, Communications, Development & Adult Recognition and advisers) for Leaders.

ANYTHING ELSE?

Meet with members of the Adult Support Team, under your care, regularly to ensure that they receive the support they need and are effective in their role.

Meet with each member of the Adult Support Team, under your care, to carry out an annual review of their contribution to Scouting and their ongoing performance of the role.
